PILOT HOUSE

“MY CHIEF WAS PRESENTLY HIRED TO GO ON A BIG NEW ORLEANS BOAT, AND I PACKED MY SACHEL AND WENT WITH HIM. SHE WAS A GRAND AFFAIR. WHEN I STOOD IN HER PILOT HOUSE I WAS SO FAR ABOVE THE WATER THAT I SEEMED PERCHED ON A MOUNTAIN; AND HER DECKS STRETCHED SO FAR AWAY, FORE AND AFT, BELOW ME . . . THE PILOT HOUSE WAS A SUMPTUOUS GLASS TEMPLE; ROOM ENOUGH TO HAVE A DANCE IN; SHOWY RED AND GOLD WINDOW-CURTAINS; AN IMPOSING SOFA; LEATHER CUSHIONS AND A BACK TO THE HIGH BENCH WHERE VISITING PILOTS SIT, TO SPIN YARNS AND 'LOOK AT THE RIVER,' BRIGHT, FANCIFUL 'CUSPIDORS' INSTEAD OF A BROAD WOODEN BOX FILLED WITH SAWDUST; NICE NEW OIL-CLOTH ON THE FLOOR; A HOSPITABLE BIG STOVE FOR WINTER; A WHEEL AS HIGH AS MY HEAD, COSTLY WITH INLAID WORK; A WIRE TILLER ROPE; BRIGHT BRASS KNOBS FOR THE BELLS; AND A TIDY, WHITE APRONED, BLACK 'TEXAS-TENDER,' TO BRING UP TARTS AND ICES AND COFFEE DURING MID-WATCH, DAY AND NIGHT.”

- Life on the Mississippi by Mark Twain

Natchez's Hotel Vue is nestled high on the bluff of the majestic Mississippi, bringing to mind the captain's quarters of riverboats - where the beauty of the Mississippi River is the most breathtaking. The hotel's restaurant, The Pilot House, was named to pay homage to this view and was inspired by Mark Twain's Life on the Mississippi. The restaurant's appeal, much like that of the riverboat captain's quarters, serves as a meeting place where tales are great and long. The restaurant's logo features majestic deer antlers, a nod to the old tradition of adorning the fastest boats on the river with a pair of gilded antlers.
